

General conditions of sales

Price list 2024 - EUR excl. V.A.T. - Version 1.1

General

These general conditions of sale and terms of delivery shall apply to all agreements concluded between HOWE A/S (hereinafter HOWE) and its customers (hereinafter the Buyer), unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing between the Parties.

Conclusion of agreements, etc.

An agreement has not been concluded until HOWE has accepted an offer made by the Buyer by issuing an order acknowledgement, an invoice or other such written agreement based on the terms and conditions specified in this document. All prices stated in price lists and catalogues include packaging, such as pallets and transport containers, and exclude taxes, VAT, and any other charges. HOWE reserves the right to adjust the prices stated without prior warning in case of an increase in the price of raw materials, production costs, transport costs, packaging, or other sudden changes in the cost level. All agreements are thus concluded on the basis of the prices in force at the time when the order is received.

The agreement basis is thus the information, including information relating to price, materials, qualities, etc., that is stated in the order acknowledgement, invoice, or other such agreement, since other information shall be deemed to be for guidance only and may be corrected up until but not later than the time when the agreement is concluded. Unless otherwise explicitly agreed in writing, the goods have been sold for normal, standard use for the intended purpose.

Payment, etc.

Payment terms are subject to credit insurance at Coface. In case a customer cannot be insured a prepayment, or a bank guarantee will be required. If credit payment terms can be granted, payment shall be made in accordance with the terms of payment stated on the invoice, which basically means that payment shall be made in cash not later than 30 days after the date of invoice ("net 30 days"), unless otherwise explicitly agreed. The Buyer shall not be entitled to withhold any part of his payment and cannot meet his obligations through offsetting or similar. If payment is delayed, HOWE shall be entitled to charge interest at 0.75 % per month or part thereof and depending on the circumstances HOWE shall also be entitled to fully or partially withhold subsequent deliveries, specify special terms of payment, or – if necessary – cancel agreements with the Buyer in question. HOWE is entitled to charge a fee of 10 (ten) EUR for each reminder on late payment. All invoices will be sent by e-mail. Invoices sent by paper will be added an invoice fee of 4 (four) EUR.

Property reservation

HOWE shall retain property in all the goods stated in the order acknowledgement or other such written agreement until the full purchase sum has been paid. The Buyer shall keep the goods fully insured until such time as the purchase sum has been paid and during this period the Buyer shall be responsible towards HOWE for any all and any damage suffered by the goods. HOWE has the right to inspect the goods at any time.

BATTERIES' SHIPMENTS

OE batteries contain Lithium-Ion (Li-ion) cells which are classed as hazardous materials. As such they are individually packed in UN38.3 compliant packaging, including special Li Ion Battery Label. They should be kept in that packaging until they are either fitted in the furniture or get to the site for use.

If one consolidates the battery into an outer carton, it must remain in the box it is shipped to the person in inside the outer carton. The outer carton would then need to be marked with 'OVERPACK' word in English and the local language – the rules are even stricter for air freight - consult details with your freight forwarder (OE can supply UN38.3 certificates).

That is why at HOWE we:

- a) always place a separate order and use road shipments for batteries,
- b) strongly recommend shipping batteries directly to the end customer.

OE is experienced in shipping batteries to a number of international locations. Still, we strongly advise to state in advance to which country destination one is quoting for. On that basis we can confirm that battery export to the said country is allowed and possible.

In case the customer asks for the shipment to the warehouse, they must confirm the place is officially complying with all the regulations regarding storage and handling of dangerous goods which include:

- Staff training on dangerous goods handling – chargeable course required (renewable every couple of years) – also a DGSA must to be appointed or trained,
- Being equipped with fire proof cabinet storage,
- Having Property owner and insurance authorisation.

Buyer may request change of the delivery address to another facility that meets HOWE delivery requirements:

- o If the change is made 8 days prior to shipment date it is free of charge
- o If the change is made within a week till shipment date, a change of 100 EUR will be added to sales order
- o If the change is made after the shipment date, Buyer will need to cover all the extra costs incurred by the carrier, but not less than 150 EUR.

DAMAGES

Regardless of whether the Buyer is present at the time of the delivery, all risks in relation to the goods shall pass to the Buyer upon delivery to the agreed location.

Visible damages must be noted on the Forwarder's Consignment Note immediately on delivery. Damages are to be stated in detail. A written complaint must then be sent immediately within 7 days from receipt of the goods to us and to the Forwarder. Non-visible damages must be reported in writing within 7 days from receipt of goods to HOWE and to the Forwarder.

Any complaints submitted after this period will not be accepted.

Any deviation from the terms of delivery shall be deemed to constitute one joint deviation from the above, in which case the Buyer shall take over the risk in relation to the goods at the earlier time when the goods were collected or could have been collected in accordance with the agreement made.

HOWE's standard delivery times in EU are usually: Chairs 4-6 weeks, Tables 5-7 weeks. In case of large quantities and/or customized products delivery time will be determined on a case-to-case basis.

Fee and MOQ for non-standard choices

For any non-standard product there is a 500 EUR fee. In most cases there is also a minimum order quantity (MOQ).

Buyers' cancellation of contract

The Buyer shall be entitled to cancel the contract up until forty-eight (48) hours after the order confirmation has been issued, provided that the manufacture/dispatch/delivery of the goods has not yet commenced at this time, in return for a payment of 5% of the purchase sum and any extra loss incurred by HOWE as a consequence of the cancellation. In the event that more than five days have passed since the order confirmation was issued, the contract may only be cancelled until 4 (four) weeks before confirmed shipment in return for payment of 50% of the purchase sum plus transport and administration costs and any extra loss incurred by HOWE as a consequence of the cancellation. Hereafter the contract cannot be cancelled.

Delays

The confirmed time of delivery is only an estimated deadline since HOWE shall be entitled to make changes to or temporarily postpone deliveries in order to be able to organise its goods deliveries and administration appropriately. HOWE cannot be held liable for any loss suffered by the Buyer as a result of a changed or postponed time of delivery. Furthermore, HOWE does not automatically offer loan furniture in these situations.

Deficiencies, etc.

HOWE shall only be liable for deficiencies in the goods sold if such deficiencies are the result of matters relating to the materials used or the craftsmanship applied. In particular, HOWE shall not be liable for matters resulting from wrong or abnormal use or storage, including in relation to climate and temperature conditions, or any other aspects related to HOWE's instructions.

When the risks in relation to the goods have passed to the Buyer, HOWE can only be held liable for faults and deficiencies to the extent specified in this provision.

The Buyer shall be obliged to carry out a detailed examination of the consignment immediately upon receipt. Complaints regarding deficiencies and/or visible transport damage which are – or should have been – discovered in this examination shall be written on the consignment note, which must be returned immediately, so as to inform HOWE at once. Any complaints regarding "non-visible" transport damage must reach HOWE not later than seven (7) days after the date of delivery and any complaints regarding any deficiencies ascertained must in each case be forwarded not later than seven (7) days after they were – or should have been – discovered. If the complaint is not made within these deadlines, the Buyer's access to advance claims in relation to any such deficiencies shall be forfeited.

A complaint shall be in writing and shall contain a specific description of the deficiencies with accompanying photo documentation or, alternatively, the deficient component/product shall be forwarded with the complaint.

In case of deficiencies for which HOWE is liable, the Buyer shall not be entitled to invoke any other rights than the right to have the goods replaced, which shall be done at no cost to the Buyer. In particular, the Buyer shall thus not be entitled to cancel the transaction or ask for a proportional rebate, compensation, or repayment, unless the deficiency ascertained is the result of gross negligence or intent on the part of HOWE. However, HOWE can under no circumstances be held liable for operating loss, loss of profit, time loss or other such indirect loss suffered by the Buyer.

The deficient goods belong to HOWE and shall be returned to HOWE upon request. Basically, the Buyer shall bear the costs and risk of such transport. Unless HOWE has explicitly undertaken to guarantee for the object sold for a longer period, HOWE shall under no circumstances be held liable for faults or deficiencies for which no written complaint has been sent within two years of the hand-over to the Buyer.

Product liability

The Buyer shall compensate and reimburse HOWE for all, and any compensation claims made by third parties on account of damage or injury for which HOWE is not liable towards the Buyer. HOWE shall be liable for damage or injury resulting from defective products in pursuance of the provisions of Act No. 371 of 7 June 1989 (the Danish Product Liability Act). Such liability cannot exceed DKK 50,000 and HOWE can under no circumstances be held liable for operating loss, loss of profit, time loss or any other such indirect loss. The Buyer shall immediately inform HOWE of any cases in which a third-party file a lawsuit or otherwise advances claims on account of damage or injury caused by products manufactured by HOWE.

Design alterations

HOWE reserves the right at all times to make such changes to product design, etc., as HOWE deems to be necessary. In such case, information about significant alterations shall be forwarded to the Buyer prior to delivery.

Invocation of rights

If HOWE fails to exercise or claim one of the rights enjoyed by HOWE under these general conditions, such failure shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of such right on the part of HOWE. Likewise, such failure shall not prevent such right in being invoked or claimed at a later point in time.

Disputes, applicable law

Any dispute arising in connection with the performance of agreements in relation to these conditions of sale and terms of delivery, as well as any other matters relating thereto shall be decided by the Maritime and Commercial Court of Copenhagen. Any dispute shall be settled in accordance with Danish law, with the provisions of Act No. 237 of 28 March 2003 (the Danish Sale of Goods Act) to the extent said Act has not been deviated from in the above.

Be advised that HOWE A/S reserves the right to correct any printing errors, inaccuracies, or omissions.
